

Having trouble viewing this message? Click here to view it online.
To ensure delivery, please add admin@limopreneur.com to your address book.

The IRS and Voluntary Classification Settlement Program

The IRS is gunning for you if you still use Independent contractors. The number of audits are increasing and they go back 6 years. You're twice as likely to get the audit if you have have over $100,000 in revenue.

Read More »

Money Saving Tips

This month Chuck shares some Money Saving Tips that he's learned throughout the years that focuses on your cash flow.

Read More »

Holiday Light Tours...What Are You Waiting For?

If your not aggressively booking limo holiday tours right now, you are missing out on a lot of revenue. Limopreneur is going to share some proven methods that will help you right now.

Read More »

Capitalizing on the Quinceanera Events in Your Market

Quinceaneras only happen once in a young Hispanic lady's life and most want a big stretch limo to celebrate. This is great incremental business for the LIMOPRENEUR to pursue.

Read More »

IRS Tax Code 179

Section 179 of the IRS Code is set to expire December 31,2012. As I see it, there is little chance Congress will extend it regardless of who wins the Presidency.

Read More »

We're interested in your opinion. Leave a comment on any article.